

GIANTS GO UP HIGHER.

THEY SHUT OUT THE WASHINGTONS.

MARKED ATTENTION SHOWN THE VICTORY BY THE CHIEF MAGISTRATE OF THE NATION.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The game of ball played by the Giants today was of the greatest interest, and they shut out the Senators in the second inning. In the first inning the Senators hit the ball just at the proper time when at the bat and had not the slightest trouble in winning the game. "Mickey" Welch pitched effectively, and the Senators could do nothing with him. When they were appearing at the plate to bat they seemed to have lost their nerves, as no less than ten of them fanned the atmosphere in an endeavor to hit balls which, as a rule, could not have been reached with a pole.

Two singles and a double earned two runs in the first inning for the Giants and a home on a double. A double, Welch hit over the fence and O'Brien's error netted three runs in the second, only one of them earned. Two singles earned one in the fifth.

About 300 persons paid their respects to the President this afternoon. Included in this number were the members of the New York baseball club, who were particularly well received by the President. He chatted with them for a while and then showed them through a portion of the White House. The party was accompanied by Representative James Cunningham, who introduced them in a short speech. The score of today's game was as follows:

AN AUCTIONEER'S JOURNAL.

THE "MORTGAGED SAINT" AND SOME OTHER GOODS WITH THEM.

Peter Schevlin, of "The Ship" auction rooms, No. 2376 Third-ave., enjoyed what might be called a jubilee in the auction business yesterday. The published advertisements announcing the sale by him of the household effects of Madame and General De Bar, taken with the illustrious prominence imparted to the affair by the descriptive catalogue of the sale, which was circulated far and wide, had the effect of bringing together a large assemblage of the disciples of Spaulding, drawn apparently from every quarter of the city and the surrounding districts. All the lean, angular, hook-nosed dames, the gushing, elderly young ladies and eccentrically attired old gentlemen, whose presence lent such a variety and grotesquerie to the proceedings at the trial, were there in full force, determined to pay a last tribute of homage to their high priest.

Long before the time announced for the sale these bidders were wandering aimlessly among the tattered articles of furniture and bric-a-brac, gazing with down
